

Leslie Cox Schreiner

SCHREINER BUSINESS PARTNERS, 2001 – PRESENT

Provider of C-level Finance and Operations Management to various middle market businesses

Managing Director

Executed successful business positioning strategy by enhancing F&A function for several companies for private equity firm which purchased and sold these companies for prices exceeding expectations.

Work directly with CEO's to manage the downturn in the economy including cost cutting, profit enhancement, and competitive margin determination.

Work with CEO's/COO's to upgrade company's systems and processes to reduce inefficiencies and operating costs.

Install timely planning/budgeting programs and introduce balanced scorecards to upgrade accountability within client organizations.

Analyze potential acquisitions including evaluation of quality earnings.

Created back office function for fast growing business automating financial and management reporting.

Established electronic job costing system utilizing technology on job sites to streamline data processing.

EVOLUTIONCOM, 2000-2001

Start-up infrastructure provider in the wireless telecom industry

VP of Finance & Administration

Responsible for building and maintaining finance, accounting, IT, HR and administrative functions; reported directly to CEO.

Directed internal & external due diligence for acquisitions in US and Mexico.

Oversaw transfer of business to new ownership group.

RSM McGLADREY, 1993 to 2000; Phoenix, AZ

5th largest CPA firm, subsidiary of H&R Block

Consulting & Audit Manager

Led client service and quality control for all audit & consulting projects reporting to EU Managing Partner.

Responsible for Client CFO / Controller Monthly Forum Group.

Managed highly confidential special project for Fortune 100 client working directly with client CEO.

Key recruiter of new staff at Arizona Universities.

Implemented a sophisticated planning and budgeting system for large client association including overseeing roll out of new technology.